CHARACTER PROFILE

JACKSON FERRERA

DENVER UNIVERSITY

Student ID

Age: 21

Description: 6' tall, blue eyes that turn green at times and blond hair.

Father: Martin Ferrera, Italian descent

Mother: Fiona Ferrera, Norweigen descent

Nickname: Ferry (He wanted it to be Speedy since he's so fast on the ice, but the hockey tradition is to add a 'Y' at the end of your last name. However, if there is a funny story, you might get something very different.)

Hometown: Grand Rapid, Michigan

Tattoo: on upper left arm of a guy skating out on a frozen lake with the mountains in the background, very colorful. In book 2, Alan takes Mira to the lake in the summertime.

Car: Red Hellcat Charger

College: Senior at the University of Denver

Position: Plays offense but was originally going to be a defensive player but because he's so fast on his feet offense fitted him better.

Little known fact: He was the team's captain

Brother: Ray Ferrera who plays for the NHL team the Colorado Bears

Ex-girlfriend: Jessie is his old high school sweetheart with whom he broke up around high school graduation and his first semester at college. She came in and out of his life but he just befriended her based on their long history together.

Goals: He wants to be on a NHL team and if he found a woman who was sexy and smart he might be inclined to get to know her. He wanted a dog growing up but his Mom said no. He loves Olivia's huge Mastador named Bowser.

Roommates: Tyler and Allan

College Residence: Jackson lives in his parents second home in Park Place, a gated community near the campus and is a gated community.

NHL Team: Fort Myers Gators
